Tuesday 19 January

A NON-ACADEMIC CAREER AFTER DISSERTATION

09.15-09.45 Registration and coffee
09.45-10.00 Welcome
10.00-11.00 Voices about the travel from academia to society
   Marie Pettersson: Head of TEM Foundation at Lund University
   Mikael Kylsäter: Verksamhetscontroller, Helsingborgs stad
   Mats Hansson: Professor in Biology
11.00-12.00 Career planning – where to start and how to think?
   Pernilla Carlsson, Career coach at the Medical Faculty of Medicine, Lund University
12:00-13.00 Lunch

ECOSYSTEM SERVICES: SUPPLY AND DEMAND

13:00-14:00 Meeting introduction
   Introductory presentation about ecosystem services:
   Johan Ekroos, Centre for Environmental and Climate Research, Lund University
14.00-15.00 Presentations and workshop
   Kimberly Nicholas, Lund University Centre for Sustainability Studies, Lund University
   Mark Brady, Centre for Environmental and Climate Research, Lund University, and AgriFood Economics Centre
15.00-15.30 Coffee/tea
15.30-17.00 cont. workshop
18.00 Dinner

Wednesday 20 January

ABOUT WORKING WITH ECOSYSTEM SERVICES

09.00-09.20 Introduction & reports from ClimBEco Research Stay Grants
09.20-09.40 Henrik Smith, Centre for Environmental and Climate Research, Lund University, 09.40-10.10 Ecosystem services: New goggles for municipalities and companies to navigate global challenges? Håkan Emilsson, U&WE, Stockholm
10.10-10.30 Coffee/tea
10.30-10.50 Implementing ecosystem services in municipal decision making
   Helena Hanson, Stadsbyggnadskontoret Malmö Stad,
   Centre for Environmental and Climate Research, Lund University
10.50-12.00 Discussion Panel
12.00-13.00 Lunch
13:00-14.00 Meeting summary

Mandatory reading before the meeting:
   Indicators 37, 220-228.
Turner et al. (2003). Valuing nature: lessons learned and future research directions. Ecological economics,